

LANCASTER, GARRARD COUNTY.

Gov. James B. McCreary will speak at the court-house this, Monday afternoon.

The local brass band lived things up on the public square Friday and Saturday nights.

Elder J. C. Frank is conducting a protracted meeting at London this week. Eld. John Bell Gibson, of Stanford, preached at the Christian church, Sunday.

Judge J. C. Hemphill has opened a stock of gents' furnishings goods and clothing in the Miller Hotel building. Judge Hemphill is a big-hearted, polished gentleman and has spent a greater portion of his life in the mercantile business in Lancaster. We bespeak for him a liberal share of patronage.

It took all of Wednesday and half of Thursday to complete the taking of testimony in the case against John Campbell for killing Humphrey Best. After hearing the arguments of counsel, Judge Robinson decided that there were not sufficient grounds for holding Campbell to the grand jury and he was discharged. A large crowd from Paint Lick attended the trial.

Dr. Ben Letcher, of Henderson, spent Sunday with his sister, Mrs. Mag Dunn. Mr. John Farra has returned from Staunton, Va. Miss Mary Annie Wilmore returned to Nicholasville, Friday. Mrs. Joe Paxton, nee Miss Mary Robinson, spent a few days last week with her mother, Mrs. Alex Robinson. Judge J. C. Hemphill and family have returned from the meeting of the Knights of Pythias at Harrodsburg. R. L. Elkin, of Surveyor Collier's office, Louisville, is here on a visit to his mother. Mr. Uriah Simpson and family are visiting in Hustonville. Rev. Waite and wife, of Louisville, are visiting Mrs. C. C. Storme.

LONDON, LAUREL COUNTY.

Mrs. Dora Jackson, who has been sick so long, died at 4 o'clock Sunday evening at the home of her sister, Mrs. George W. Baker. She was loved by all and her husband and little child have the deepest sympathy of the entire town. Burial on Cemetery Hill Monday.

Considerable excitement at the depot Sunday morning caused by H. C. Broughton shooting at a colored man named Tom White. Some liquor was said to have been the cause of it.

The Greatest of Trolling Meetings.

In this issue appears the advertisement calling attention to Kentucky's great trolling meeting at Lexington, Oct. 5 to 14. The programmes are ready and will be mailed to those who apply, as will the full list of entries as soon as published. The Association has offered $50,000 for the races and secured the best horses in the whole country; yet it has generously set aside the gate receipts of the first, second and third days for the two hospitals and the orphan asylum, known as The Charity Organization in Lexington. The programme is before us and it is an attractive one, full of variety and excellent in arrangement. Horsemen pronounce it the best ever issued and predict that the Stallion Representative Stake ($5,000), Saturday, Oct. 8; The Transylvania Stake ($5,000), Monday, Oct. 10; the Free-for-all purse ($2,000), Wednesday, Oct. 12; and the $5,000 Special Stake, Friday, Oct. 14, will prove the four grandest contests ever witnessed. The great event, however, of the meeting is to be the Transylvania, in which 20 horses, all able to trot in 2:10 or better, are eligible to start. Amongst them are Evangeline, 2:11; Rayland T., 2:12; Little Albert, 2:12; Pounce de Leon, 2:13; Paragon, 2:13; New York Central, 2:13; St. Vincent, 2:13; Anderson's Nightingale, 2:13; Krenlin, 2:13; Hamlin's Nightingale, 2:14; Hazel Wilkes, 2:14; Mattie H., 2:14; and Belle Vera, 2:15. There are seven more, but the above show the quality of the horses in the race. Such a field has never faced a starter, and this will be America's greatest race. Write to Ed A. Tipton, Secretary, Lexington, Ky., and get a programme, also list of entries.

A Cure for Paralysis.

Frank Cornelius, of Purcell, Ind. Ter., says: "I induced Mr. Finson, whose wife had paralysis in the face, to buy a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. To their great surprise before the bottle had been used she was a great deal better. Her face had been drawn to one side; but the Pain Balm relieved all pain and soreness and the countenance assumed its natural shape." It is also a certain cure for rheumatism, lame back, sprains, swellings and lameness. 50-cent bottles for sale by Dr. M. L. Bourne, Druggist and Optician, Stanford, Ky.

Bucklin's Arnica Salve.

The best salve in the world for cuts, bruises, sores, ulcers, salt rheum, fever sores, itches, chapped hands, chilblains, corns and all skin eruptions and positively cures piles, or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction, or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by A. R. Penny, Stanford, Ky.

For many years Mr. B. F. Thompson, of Des Moines, Iowa, was severely afflicted with chronic diarrhoea. He says: "At times it was very severe; so much so that I feared it would end my life. About seven years ago I chanced to procure a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy. It gave me prompt relief and I believe cured me permanently, as I now eat or drink anything I please without harm. I have also used it in my family with the best results." For sale by Dr. M. L. Bourne, Druggist and Optician, Stanford, Ky.

No new cholera cases have been reported at New York's quarantine station since Tuesday.

DANVILLE.

Mr. James J. Tadlock and Miss Lily B. Sampson obtained marriage license the 23d inst.

Hiram Gilpin and John Lucas, young white men, were sent to the penitentiary one year each, Friday, for grand larceny. They stole some clothing, confessed and got off with the lowest penalty.

Miss Blanche Corinne Murphy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Timothy Murphy, died, Saturday, after a long illness. The funeral took place Monday at 4 o'clock from the family residence.

Bill Drye was convicted Saturday of killing Hiram Cowan and given eight years in the penitentiary. Both colored. The case will probably go to the court of appeals if a new trial is not granted.

While returning from church, Sunday night, Mrs. W. R. Bowman and daughter, Miss Kate Bowman, were knocked down and badly bruised by a runaway horse belonging to Andrew Whitley. Both ladies were cut and bruised severely, but it is hoped not dangerously. Mrs. Bowman is hurt worse than Miss Kate. The horse started from Mr. John Craig's avenue, near the house, where he broke loose from a post where he had been hitched.

FARM AND TRADE ITEMS.

Field, of Fayette, sold 41,000 pounds of hemp at $4.50 per 112 pounds.

P. J. Dwyer bought of Fred Gilhard his Leonatus colt, Leonawell, for $10,000.

M. S. Baughman sold to Dr. Jackson Given, of Pittsburg, a combined mare for $175.

Wm. Moreland bought of various parties in this county a car-load of hogs at 4 to 4 1/2 cents.

For Sale.—15 extra two-year old feeders, weighing about 1,100 lbs. Apply to R. H. Bronaugh, Crab Orchard, Ky. *
M. F. Elkin bought of A. C. Martin a lot of fat heifers at 2 cents and of C. M. Spoonamore 20 150 pound hogs at 4 cents.

The Carlisle Mercury says the new owners of Blue Lick Springs will build a fine track and organize a fair and trotting association.

Covington business men have organized the Farmers' and Shippers' Tobacco Warehouse Company, with a capital of $1,000,000. It will be a rival of the Cincinnati combine.

The rains have brought the grass out wonderfully and if this weather continues it will be as fine as was ever seen in the fall. The corn crop is an average in two-thirds of the county, but in this the other third, it is much less than half a crop.

McAnally, of the Shelby City neighborhood, sold to A. K. Penny, 23 acres of corn in the field, average 6 barrels 22 bushels to the acre, at $1.75, the lowest price we have heard of. Mr. Penny will feed it to his mules, of which he has about 50.

Last year Budd Todd paid $10 per acre for 13 acres of land near Speedwell. He put 150 pounds of fertilizer per acre upon it and planted corn. His crop averaged nine barrels to the acre and he sold it for $300, $20 per acre, or twice as much as the land cost.—Richmond Register.

H. C. Hall, of Montgomery county, bought of George Owens 100 barrels of new corn in the field at $2. W. B. Kidd shipped to Baltimore, Thursday, 143 cattle averaging about 1,550 pounds, bought in Montgomery, Clark and Fayette counties at an average of 4 cents.—Winchester Sun.

W. P. Prewitt, auctioneer of Paint Lick, reports the sale of O. T. Wallace, executor of W. Johnson, at Wallaceon, on the 23d inst. Corn in the field $2.20 per barrel, wheat 55 cents, cow and calf $30; horses $20 to $61; 10 acres of land with moderate improvements $655. A good crowd and all in a good humor with no signs of hard times.

Hayden & Crowder have bought over 300 head of 1,100-pound steers in Green, LaRue and Taylor counties at 2 1/2 to 2.60. Mattingly and Saunders Bros. have bought over 200 head of 1,100 pound steers at same price. Charles Heaven sold to Mattingly, Simms & Co. 20 first class sugar mules at $137, and delivered a car-load Tuesday, which were shipped at once to New Orleans.—Lebanon Enterprise.

Happy Hoosters

Wm. Timmons, postmaster of Danville, Indiana, writes: "Electric Bitters has done more for me than all other medicines combined, for that bad feeling arising from kidney and liver trouble." John Leslie, farmer and stockman, of same place, says: "Find Electric Bitters to be the best kidney and liver medicine, made me feel like a new man." J. W. Gardner, hardware merchant, same town, says: "Electric Bitters is just the thing for a man who is all run down and don't care whether he lives or dies; he found new strength, good appetite and felt just like he had a new lease on life. Only 50¢ a bottle at A. R. Penny's drug store."

La Grippe Again.

During the epidemic of La Grippe, last season Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, proved to be the best remedy. Reports from many who used it confirm this statement. They were not only quickly relieved, but the disease left no bad after results. We ask you to give this remedy a trial and we guarantee that you will be satisfied with results, or the purchase price will be refunded. It has no equal in La Grippe, or any Throat, Chest or Lung trouble. Trial bottles free at A. R. Penny's Drug Store. Large bottles, 50¢ and $1.

Justice Lamar suffered a stroke of paralysis a few days ago.

LIBERTY, CASEY COUNTY.

George A. and his brother, William Gibbons, formerly of this county, but now of Knoxville, have been among their relatives and friends here this week, looking well and as handsome as usual.

John P. Davis, wife and child, from Stanford, were on a visit to Dr. O. H. McRoberts a few days since. Mrs. John Marbles, after a long absence, was on a visit to her aged father, Mr. A. Royally, last week.

Casey county still stands pre-eminent in heavy weights, as almost in everything else. A jolly fruit tree dealer, E. G. Gaston, from Carlisle, Ky., who has been amongst us for a few days, the other day weighed with our fat man, Durham, of Middleburg, and pulled the beam at 300, while Durham's weight was 301. Mr. Gaston, however, claims that he was at disadvantage, being lately sick, and that he has reached 340.

Chris. Lyon, of Hustonville, James K. Howard and Dr. Felix, were on a fishing expedition here last Monday and Tuesday. Lient. Howard was one of the original Wolford's cavalry from Clinton county, and though nearly 27 years had elapsed since he left the 1st Kentucky to accept promotion in the 13th Ky. Cavalry, he was readily recognized by his old comrades here. Time dealt gently with him, the same hearty, jovial features, but his hair was slightly frosted.

The examining trial of Wm. Allen, for the killing of Ben Barlow at Caney Fork church on the 10th, commenced Thursday and continued all day Friday. County Attorney Q. C. Godbey, John D. Fogie and S. J. Baldrick, of Lebanon, prosecuted and A. R. Clark defended. The case awakened much interest, as the court-house was full both days. About 40 witnesses on each side were on hand, but not all examined. Although he was ably defended, our honest judge thought him guilty and held him to answer in the circuit court and fixed his bond at $1,000.

MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

The marriage of Miss Mary P. Young, daughter of Col. Bennett H. Young, and Burt McVay Allison, will be quietly solemnized Oct. 12th.

We send cordial greetings to Daniel Mayes Bowmar, of the Woodford Sun, and his bonnie bride, who was Miss Cicely de Graffeurd McCaw. May they live long and prosper.

Robert C., son of Gov. McCreary, will marry Miss Jessica Newberry, daughter of Gen. Newberry, of Chicago, Oct. 5th. After a short bridal tour the groom will settle in Chicago to practice his profession of the law.

After being married 68 years, Geo. Clouser and wife held a celebration with 123 descendants in attendance, at Mansfield, Ill. Both the old people are lively and well. A sister of Mrs. Clouser celebrated her 94th birthday in Ohio Friday and a brother is in his 80th year.

R. C. Marimon, Esq., one of the editors of the Harrodsburg Sayings, will marry Miss Nannie Forsythe, of Mercer, Oct. 5th. We do not know either of them personally, but John Pulliam's endorsement in such complimentary terms is enough to put them away up in our estimation.

Mrs. Andrew Tucker, a comely young widow, only daughter of the late Squire Craig Lynn, was married at Crossland, last Thursday night, to her cousin, Middleton Lynn. There was objection to the marriage on account of close relationship and this was why the Brodhead trip was made. May they live long and happily.

FAITH.

Though the clouds be thickly gathered
And obscure each ray of light,
Turning Hope's reluctant day-time
Into Doubt's depressing night,
Yet behind the heavy shadows
Beams the sun of endless day,
But that sun will never reach us
Till the doubts have passed away.

Though the heart be bowed in sorrow,
Sternest griefs oppress the soul,
Though the tide of trouble flow us
Where its waters blackest roll;
Yet there is a voice that's waiting,
Joy and peace to speak to all;
But that voice will never reach us
Till for our own shall call.

Though a sense of grievous sinning
Crush us by its mighty weight,
Though we feel that God has left us
To our self-appointed fate,
Yet his hand is always proffered
When all the other help has flown,
But his hand will never reach us
Till we grasp it with our own.

From the selections of the editor's dear dead wife, and printed in loving memory of her.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became a Girl, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

The I. J. Man at the Barbourville Fair and Other Points.

Having gotten in the custom of going to all the fairs in these parts and doing pretty well for the INTERIOR JOURNAL at them all, I left Stanford on Friday morning for Barbourville to be present on the last day of the second meeting of the Knox County Fair Association has held. Fortunately for me an immense crowd attended and it was a first-rate opportunity to increase our already respectably large list at that point. The opportunity was grasped and the consequence is the mail on Tuesday and Friday mornings at Barbourville will weigh a few pounds more than it has heretofore. A goodly number of our old stand-bys renewed their subscriptions, which too helped the cause to some extent.

The fair proved a very creditable exhibition of stock and each ring was well filled. The trots and running races were interesting and altogether it was a fair that Knox county has a right to be proud of.

A special feature was the floral hall, which was literally jammed with various exhibits. It might well have been called an agricultural hall also, for a considerable portion was used for the display of agricultural products of every kind. The show in this line was particularly good and showed that Knox county has some good farmers herself.

The programme for Friday was such a large one that it could not be completed and the fair was continued over till Saturday, when, I am told, another large crowd attended. The premiums were not remarkably large and as there were a great many "speculators" the association evidently came out away ahead.

I was impressed with the good looks of the crowd Friday. The men, as a general thing, are refined and substantial looking, and the ladies, if you will pardon the slang, are "out of sight." Knox county is ahead of several of her sister counties in this line and in fact nearly comes up to the blue grass.

To make it even more pleasant for the visitor within their gates the young men gave a delightful hop, Friday evening, at the new hotel. There were some 40 couples present and from 9 p. m. till 3 a. m. Terpsichore was worshipped. Lots of pretty girls, dressed in the latest approved hop style, were there and the scene altogether was one of beauty and merriment.

The town of Barbourville is not what the more sanguine thought it would be when the boom was on, a couple or so years ago, but it is a good town anyway and lots of business is done there. Editor Lewis D. Sampson claims that he has the best town in the State, and while I do not agree with him altogether, I must admit that it is a good place and a most excellent town to secure subscriptions to a first-class newspaper.

A family by the name of Andrews, living in Barbourville, made music for the fair. There were in the band, besides the father and mother, five sons and a daughter and the music they made was good indeed. The daughter blows a slide trombone with much grace and ability, while Mrs. Andrews "toots" a cornet like a veteran.

From the fair I went to Cumberland Gap, thence to Middleboro and then to Pineville—three "boom-busted" towns in one day. A feeling of sadness pervades my very soul when I look at these places, which two or three years ago, we spoke of and looked on as "future greats." Cumberland Gap seems to be sleeping a sleep that knows no waking. Most of the people who could do so have moved away and vacant business houses and dwellings can be seen on every hand.

Middleboro, so the citizens say, is looking up and may the good Lord help it to do so. It is claimed that work will soon begin at the Watts' Steel plant and that 1,000 men will be given employment. Whether this is true or not time only will tell. The Watts claim that they have expended $1,300,000 there and that their pay roll for the men they have already on the grounds amounts to upwards of $12,000 per month. One salaried man—the steel maker—draws one-twelfth of that amount.

The tannery, which gives 200 men employment, and which, by the way, is the second largest in the world, uses 500 hides a day and has been doing so several months. The iron works and South Boston Gun Works, I was told, are assured and will be in operation ere many moons wax and wane.

Pineville looked mighty dull, but there are those who are sanguine that only a little time is needed to make it what it promised to be—a good little city. Some building is going on there, but the ham of industry is not so deafening as it was some years ago. The Pineville people are like David Copperfield's Micawber, always waiting for something to turn up, and seem to be about as well satisfied with their lot as was that character.

Capt. W. A. Abbott, who has long been with Messrs. Percival & Hinton, Real Estate and Insurance Brokers, Des Moines, Iowa, and is one of the best known and most respected business men in that city, says: "I can testify to the good qualities of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Having used it in my family for the past eight years, I can safely say it has no equal for either colds or croup." 25 and 50-cent bottles for sale by Dr. M. L. Bourne, Druggist and Optician, Stanford, Ky.

SEMI-WEEKLY INTERIOR JOURNAL

STANFORD, KY., SEPTEMBER 27, 1892

W. P. WALTON.

SIX : PAGES.
EVERY FRIDAY.

AFTER a triumphal tour through the Tar Heel State, where he was received with great enthusiasm and listened to by vast crowds, the next vice-President, Gen. Adlai E. Stevenson descended over the line into the Old Dominion and into the good old city of Richmond. He made a speech there which set the democrats wild and after it he was tendered a grand ovation. While in North Carolina an admirer presented him with the left hind foot of a church yard rabbit for good luck, and now there is no doubt at all in the minds of the superstitious that the general will preside over the Senate after the 4th of next March.

GEN. WEAVER, the third party's candidate for president, was rotten-egged at Macon, Ga., while making a speech from a hotel balcony. His wife and others were on the balcony and got caught in the shower. Such conduct is most reprehensible and the perpetrators ought to be punished. There is no law which compels a man to listen to a demagogue orate, and any person is at liberty to seek some other place if he does not wish to hear his tom-foolery. Besides that kind of business gives the Yankees another chance to dilate on plantation manners and abuse the Southern people.

THERE is not much sickly sentimentality among the Finlanders. A woman murdered her husband by giving him strychnine in order to obtain his life insurance and a heartless jury was ungallant enough to say she must have her head cut off. An appeal was taken and the court instead of coming to her rescue, approved the sentence and added the additional punishment of having her right hand cut off a few days before her head drops in the basket. In this country she would have been let off with a short term in prison and pardoned by a tender hearted governor before even that was served.

GEN. WEAVER didn't mind the "guying" that he got in Georgia, so much, but when the shower of decayed hen fruit came, he threw up the sponge and cancelled his other engagements in the State. He says there is no free speech in the South, but he exonerates the Confederate soldiers from showing him any disrespect. They treated him everywhere with consideration.

THE Mt. Sterling Sentinel is attempting to scare its delinquents into paying their honest debts by publishing a full list of them, two weeks hence if they do not come to time. We fear the scheme won't work very well. The man who is mean enough to refuse to pay or neglect to pay for his paper if he is able, don't mind seeing his name in print in hardly any connection.

THE monument to Hon. Jefferson Davis, to be erected at Richmond, Va., will be placed in Monroe Park, which was formerly at the head of Franklin street until the city began to grow so rapidly. This park was named for President Monroe and his remains lie buried there, over which a monument stands.

Yes, Smith, of the Mt. Vernon Signal, we are ashamed, as men usually are, who, in hunting for large game, run across a mephitic mephitis, not saying however, that you are that kind of a bird. You are mistaken, though, when you charge that we are angry. We make it a rule never to get mad at an idiot, a crazy man or, as Sut Lovingood so beautifully expresses it, "a natural born dern fool," neither of which, mind you, do we charge you to be, nor would we, as we value our life. Hast thou not shaken thy gory locks at us, corrugated that bulging and hirsute brow and scared us into a cat fit? Yea, verily. Oh you're a bad man from Bitter Creek and as you read your crushing article to applauding friends, don't you feel proud and brave, and more of a David than ever? We know you do and we are glad of it. You are a good fellow in your way and we like you, but please don't think we are mad every time we crack our whip to "make ze monk go round." A man is bound to have a little fun occasionally and we can get it out of you every time. And now my dear Smith, au revoir, be a good boy, keep your nose clean and do not rend your nether garment. We love you and whom we love we chasteneth.

THE secretary of war has ordered all the buildings to be torn down on the government reservation at Fortress Monroe, which includes the Higieia and Chamberlain's new hotel, within 15 days. There are also many residences and much railroad property on the grounds, amounting in value, all told, to four or five millions of dollars. It is said that this action is taken because the settlers would not agree to pay for certain sewerage improvements ordered. Strenuous efforts will be made to have the order withdrawn or modified, as it seems it should be considering the great amount of interests involved.

A FIFTH presidential ticket has been thrust on a long suffering public. A handful of cranks met at Washington and nominated Mrs. Victoria Woodhull Martin, of "New York and London," for president, and Mrs. Mary Stowe, of California, for vice-president. Mrs. Martin's unenviable reputation, made while living in the former place, may secure her the vote of a certain class of people, but her ticket will not command even a corporal's guard of fools.

THE prohibitionists ought never to dabble in politics, they make such poor politicians. They do not nominate men for their fitness for office, but simply because they are enthusiastic in the cause. The fireman at Avery's plow factory, in Louisville, has been nominated for Congress in that district, who, perhaps, has not the first qualification of a law-maker even if he had the education. But then one man is as good as another to lead a forlorn cause.

DURING the eight months ending August 31, 1892, the total number of foreign immigrants arriving in this country was 448,619, or 32,049 more than during the corresponding months in 1891. The majority of them too are the riff-raff of creation and undesirable citizens in every respect. It is high time that this country was stopping to be the refuge of the worse class of all nations. Our laws on the subject are too lax.

THE Barbourville Herald makes the most unkindest cut of all. It says that the delegate from Knox, who stole Colson's coat and other things, was a Colson delegate and of such as he his delegation was largely made up.

WHEREVER the colored people have sufficient enlightenment and are capable of appreciating the slavery they are held in by the republican party, they are disposed to kick out of the traces. At Indianapolis Friday the executive committee of the colored men's national protective association adopted resolutions denouncing the administration and candidacy of President Harrison and the Force bill and declaring against high tariff.

CAPT. SAM M. GAINES has retired from the Covington Commonwealth, whose editorial page he has brightened for several months. His plans are not known, but his dollars to doughnuts he don't stay out of the harness, that fits him so well, very long.

GEN. A. G. WEISSART was chosen commander in chief of the G. A. R., at Washington, and Indianapolis selected as the next place of meeting. A howl was made for more pensions and the encampment was over.

THE cartoonist of the Louisville Commercial continues to make life miserable for Mr. Watterson. Some of his get offs, especially that of yesterday, must be very trying to the nerves of the distinguished journalist.

SALE OF PORTMAN PROPERTY.—We call attention to the advertisement of the sale of the Portman property, next Saturday. The land offered, at the nearest point, is only 800 feet from the Court-house, is high and dry and has a fine east frontage on Lancaster street and a south frontage on a new proposed street 60 feet wide, running parallel with Main street. It has been laid off into lots which are very desirable, being both beautiful and convenient. No such opportunity to buy such property at public auction in this city has been offered before for more than 25 years and those desiring to acquire such property will do well to attend the sale. A map of the property may be seen at the office of Mr. W. H. Miller, who will, at any time, show the property to any one desiring to examine it.

LIGHTNING has demonstrated for the second time in Stanford that it does occasionally strike twice in the same place. Mr. Wesley Rout lost two houses on the same site by being struck and Sunday night Mrs. Cathie Bailey had the stable she replaced for one burned by lightning 15 months ago, destroyed in the same way. A rain and electric storm arose a little before 11 p. m., and a quick flash and a loud report warned those who were up that the lightning had struck very close. Mr. John S. Wells was standing on the porch of his boarding house, 100 yards distant, and was so blinded and frightened by the flash that he instinctively threw up his hands to ascertain if his pompadour, which is tall enough to invite such a bolt, had been struck. It was intact and he regained sufficient equilibrium to give the alarm. A crowd soon gathered and pulled out the several vehicles in the building, but there was no chance to save it. Mrs. Bailey's loss is between $400 and $500 on stable and feed.

CHRISTIAN charity is not always the rarity that the poet claims, as was evidenced at the Baptist church Sunday. A young lady giving her name as Catherine Carroll, from Clay county, was at the Sunday-school there early and the fact was elicited that she was poor and friendless and was here seeking employment, but had not found it. When the invitation was given after the sermon, she requested the prayers of the church. The pastor pathetically stated her destitute condition, and two-thirds of the congregation were shedding tears of sympathy. After the benediction the good sisters of the church crowded around her and gave words of consolation, while the brethren opened their purses and gave liberally. One lady offered her household as a home for the friendless girl, but she felt like she would rather return to her native county, so the pastor and superintendent bought her a Bible and a ticket to the nearest point to her home, and with the purse made up for her, she left on the afternoon train with a heart made lighter by the kindness of the good people.

—LANCASTER COURT.—A good crowd attended Lancaster court yesterday, but not a great deal of business was transacted. Only a few cattle were on the market and none were sold publicly. Several horses sold at $42.50 to $137 and a lot of mule colts changed hands at $38 to $60. Master Commissioner Burnside sold the Haselden town property. The first, situated near the court-house was bought by J. R. Haselden & Bro. for $3,650.25 and the latter, near J. M. Higgins' store, was bought by R. H. Tomlinson for $1,650.

—William S. Myers, a brother of Mrs. Maria Conner and A. S. Myers, died at Booneville, Mo., on the 18th of a congestive chill, after a short illness. Mr. Myers was born in this county in November, 1818, and married Miss Nancy Whitley, of Crab Orchard, and shortly afterwards removed to his late home. She died and his second wife was a Miss Wyan, of Booneville, who with three daughters survive him. His home paper, the Advertiser, says he united with the Presbyterian church there in 1847 and since 1849 had been an elder in the church, besides being the efficient and faithful clerk of the session for 30 years. He was a merchant for a long time, but for the last ten years was book keeper of the Central National Bank. He was a good and upright citizen in every regard and the community showed its respect by attending the funeral almost to a man.

We are glad to record that it was not Tom Scott, of Somerset, who was in jail for furnishing Britain with the gun with which he assassinated Norfolk.

THE keeping of the poor-house for another year will be let next Monday again, and there will be several bidders besides the excellent incumbent, Mrs. Sue Holmes.
SUNDAY night's storm purified the atmosphere and yesterday was a typical autumn day, such as made even those who haven't much to live for feel glad that they were living.

THE electric man, Mr. W. F. Hackett, is about through with the job of putting lights in Walton's Opera House. There will be 20 incandescents in the auditorium and 30 on the stage, which will make it as light as noonday.
We would call special attention this week to our stock of ladies', misses' and children's cloaks. These goods are direct from the manufacturers and embrace everything new and desirable. Come and look before buying. J. S. Hughes.

THE negro, Bill Piansante, who shot and killed Alex Williams at the Halls Gap church festival and who had since eluded arrest, came in and gave himself up Saturday. He has a hole through his hand, which he claims that Williams put there with a knife, but the doctor says that it is evidently a pistol wound, probably shot by himself to use as a defense for what seems to be a most uncalled for murder. The examining trial is set for Wednesday at 10 o'clock.

FOR LIFE.—Fourteen years ago William Smith killed Robert Sanders near Kirtlandville in a very cowardly manner. He ran off and for 13 years was a wanderer on the face of the earth. When he thought that all the witnesses were dead or gone, he surrendered and was after efforts to get evidence against him, discharged. He went to Danville to live, where a son of the man he had murdered, and who had sworn to see that he was punished, again arrested him and took him back to Madison. Since then he has been in jail, while the son was working vigorously for testimony to convict him of the deed, the atrocity of which had nearly been forgotten. Smith was tried last week and sentenced to the penitentiary for life. Occasionally a murderer gets his deserts and this is one of the cases.

O. H. WADDLE, Esq., of Somerset, was here yesterday on legal business, accompanied by Mr. Morgan Craine, of the C. S. Mr. Waddle tells us that, while not so intense as at first, the excitement over the assassination of Editor Rucker is still very strong and that there is a determination to bring his slayer to justice, and repair the foul blot on the city's good name that this and the many other crimes have placed on it. There seems to be no doubt that ex-Chief of Police Anderson is the cowardly assassin. Everything points to him, though his friends can not imagine how he could have nerve enough to up to such a dastardly deed. Mr. Waddle tells us that Mr. Rucker fully realized his condition after being shot and told his wife and daughters not to grieve for him; that he was fully prepared for death and that it was no doubt for the best. A singular circumstance was that after the shot the very had impediment in his speech disappeared and he conversed as clearly and as calmly as if death had not already claimed him. He was a true Christian and a brave man. May his death not be in vain.
